Remarks

An exceptional value for the view, location, and lifestyle this sixth-floor, two-bedroom, two-bath residence is a rare opportunity that should not be overlooked. From the moment you enter, expansive water views command your attention, setting the tone for this open and inviting floor plan where water surrounds you in every direction. The spacious, light-filled kitchen offers abundant storage and serves as a natural gathering place for guests. Just beyond, you'll find a convenient laundry closet, a full guest bath, and a generously sized second bedroom ideal for visitors or a home office. The main living area easily accommodates both comfortable seating and a formal dining arrangement, flowing seamlessly into the great room and out to the oversized screened balcony. This elevated vantage point is perfect for relaxing, entertaining, and taking in sweeping waterfront views that are increasingly hard to find at this price point. The owners suite is thoughtfully positioned for privacy and features direct access to the lanai, allowing you to wake up to tranquil water views each morning. Two walk-in closets and a spacious en-suite bath with both a soaking tub and separate shower complete this retreat. This unit has a deeded parking space under cover in the garage. There is also a storage
